Eric and Billy

I apologize I am out of town for two weeks. I will defer to Bill's building knowledge to approve for me. Any issues or other questions I can be reached by email. Thanks again for keeping me in the loop.

Thank you both

Good Morning Len and Bill:

How are you both? We have been on site setting up for disposal of the remaining excavated material stored in the seven conex boxes starting this morning.

Are both of you available to meet today to walk through the office space in GNBC? Please let me know.

Thanks.
